Hi Guys & Girls

Some News for you

New Recruits

One failed to turn up on Saturday for the interview, but Kirsty did and will join Wednesdays this week Kirsty lives in Crowthorne and likes rock 60's 80's hip hop drama public speaking and many other hobbies too many too mention. I hope you will all welcome Kirsty and help her to become a full presenter.

We had an enquiry from a student in Langley but he has no transport so have turned him down. We have one further applicant who lives in Bracknell and can do Saturdays. We intend to contact him and see if he's suitable.

Mugs on the Ward

One mug giveaway per ward unless a special case. Having said that on the Saturday before race week Alan & I gave away a week's worth on ward 1. This was a special case. The quantity of mugs ordered, is to allow 1 per night for 1 year. All wards to get an equal share please

Bath Hospital Radio Visit

Last week David & I and Matthew went to Bath hospital radio for an early morning visit. It was planned as part of our investigations into furthering Radio Heatherwood into 24 hour broadcasting. I have left a couple of leaflets at the studio which I picked up.

An interesting morning and a step back in time for David & Me as we saw an Image of Radio Heatherwood in the early days when tidiness and presentation of the studio complex was last on the list. Needless to say it has proved useful and will hopefully enhance our decision making on the route and implementation of 24 hr service.

Alan Martin Donation

Alan former patient of ward 10 has donated some more cd's for the record library.

Laraine Donation

Laraine has donated a Tom Jones cd of duets. As soon as the library man has done his bit it will appear in the library.

Saga Entertainment

Two founding members of the saga entertainment team put on a joint show on the Saturday before race week. Alan & PJ worked together on a show and it was great fun. Next time a public health warning will be issued and it will be PJ's turn for the use of the Zimmer frame.

Regards
Keep on Rockin !
