S

I have been on another planet for the last 4 years. Next weekend the Rhapsody will spin for the first time as a long weekend test. As I have been trying over the past few weeks to motivate you into submitting some material it's now upon us and we have only managed to produce just over 40 items based around the station id etc.

This email is an excel file in a zip which contains all the items which will be played during the weekend. If you produced any item of broadcast quality, it will be in there.
